Erasmus Lifelong Learning Programme

ERASMUS is an exchange programme set up by the European Union. Erasmus students usually spend one full academic year at a European university as part of their degree programme.

Costs

No fees have to be paid to the host university. Students are entitled to an Erasmus contribution towards the cost of their mobility.

Credit for work done while abroad

Students are assessed in their host universities for courses followed and such assessments are recognised by the home university, according to the European Credit Transfer System (ECTS).

ECTS was proposed by the European Commission as a way of creating common academic procedures for the different European countries. The aim of the system is to guarantee the recognition of studies carried out abroad. It is a “common academic coinage” for measuring and comparing students' performances and transferring examination results from one institution to another.

One year's (or two semesters') work is regarded as being equivalent to 60 credits. The number of credits attaching to any course will reflect the number of hours (in lectures, seminars, tutorials, etc.) demanded by that course. Thus, a course to which 10 credits are attached is assumed to represent one sixth of the student's full year's work-load. It should be noted that ECTS does not refer to the assessment for courses.

BATH Erasmus students must take 60 credits in total, at least 30 of which must be in Theology. Erasmus students must pass these 60 credits to be eligible for the BATH International award. BATH Erasmus students complete four years of study in total.

Who may apply?

Full-time registered students on the BATH programme and postgraduate programmes are eligible to apply.

Application

Students must complete an “Expression of Interest” application form which can be collected from the Pontifical University Office.

Deadline for Applications: 1st March

Language Requirements

While abroad an Erasmus student follows courses in the language of the country involved, with the exception of Leuven (Belgium) which offers an English-language theology programme to foreign students. Some universities offer free language courses to Erasmus students.

Links between Maynooth's Pontifical University and other universities:

Pontifical University

Rules, Marks and Standards in Examinations

Students are expected to attend all their courses satisfactorily. A student, whose attendance is unsatisfactory, in the judgement of the Faculty, will be debarred from presenting for the relevant examination.

Examinations will only be set on courses that have been given in the current or preceding year. Students may be debarred from passing an examination on the grounds of extreme weakness in one or other part of the course.

The Degree programme is divided into 3 'years of study'. The pass mark in a year of study is 40%. In order to pass a year of study and progress to the next year a student must pass:

- All Theology Modules required for that year of study
- All Philosophy Modules required for that year of study for BTh students
- All Arts Modules required for that year of study for BATH students
- All other requirements of the year of study.

Modules:

In order to pass a module a student must obtain at least 40% in the module, and in addition fulfil all the requirements of the module. These requirements are outlined in the module description in the Kalendarium / Calendar. Such requirements may demand that a student achieve a minimum standard:

- in continuous assessment
- in an oral / practical examination
- in the assigned essays
- in the written examination
- in such conditions as are otherwise appropriate.

A module once passed is passed in perpetuity. If a required module has been passed more than 5 years previously then a Head of Department may require supplementary work of a student in order that the student may progress.

Where a student fails to present for a Spring / Summer Examination in a module, a judgement of Absent is recorded for that module. Absent is counted as an attempt at an examination.

Given that first semester theology results are provisional an indicative grade shall be given at that point rather than an official result.

Essays:

Every module requires an essay (1000 – 1500 words) or equivalent. A major essay is required in addition to any minor essay. The dates for the submission of essays and other written work in each semester will be posted by each department during the first week of each semester.

- Essays that are submitted for up to two weeks beyond the submission date will be marked out of 40%.
- Work submitted more than two weeks late will receive no marks.
- For serious reasons, students may apply to the lecturer concerned in writing, via the Theology Office for an extension, provided they do so before the submission date. The Theology Office will be informed of any extensions granted.
- Where no extension has been requested, application for reduction of penalties for late submission will be considered by the Registrar on the basis of:
 - medical certificate
 - other evidence of unforeseen circumstances (eg bereavement).

Repeat Examinations:

Where a student fails a 'year of study', through failure to complete all requirements of the 'year of study', these requirements must be subsequently fulfilled before progression can take place. Students who fail to pass a required module must repeat that module (or a suitable approved substitute module) in the subject that they failed.

The repeat examinations for first and second semester modules shall be held in the Autumn. Where a student repeats in the Autumn, the continuous assessment component will normally be carried forward from the Spring / Summer to the Autumn repeat session.

Repeating students will be examined on the content of the module of the current academic year. Under no circumstances will examination papers be prepared based on content more than one year out of date. The department will also endeavour to accommodate 'external repeat' students by the provision of alternative questions where the content of the module may have altered significantly.

There shall be no continuous assessment for external repeating students, but in Theology, Heads of Department may prescribe a mandatory essay.

Students who fail a Theology module, and subsequently fail the autumn repeat examination, shall normally be permitted to repeat the module only once internally and / or once externally. There shall be no repeating for betterment of grades.

External Examiners in the Pontifical University

The Pontifical University has followed the long-standing practise of the Irish Universities in appointing External Examiners in each of the major theological disciplines. The system of extern examining has contributed to maintaining the standard of theological excellence of the College, the standing of its degrees, both nationally and internationally, and their comparability with those offered in similar institutions.

External Examiners are normally appointed for a term of three years. They monitor the maintenance of academic standards within a subject area and ensure equity in the results of examinations.

External Examiners are appointed by the Faculty of Theology on recommendation of the appropriate Department. Persons nominated as External Examiners are normally teaching at university level in the area they are to examine.

Prior to Examinations:

Heads of Department will communicate to the External Examiner full information on the courses to be examined (eg module descriptions from the Kalendarium), as well as copies of examination papers from previous years if necessary and a description of the methods of assessment used, including Continuous Assessment.

External Examiners approve the examination papers. Draft papers should be sent in sufficient time to enable them to propose changes and to permit discussion of such proposed changes to take place.

The External Examiner will be informed as early as possible of proposed dates for Examination Board.

Examinations:

All examination scripts, essays and other course work contributing to the final grade should be available to the External Examiner. In practise, a sufficient number of scripts and other written work will be sent to the External Examiners which will permit them to determine that the internal marking has been appropriate and consistent. They should normally see a sample of scripts drawn from the top, middle and bottom of the mark range: they should also be sent scripts of borderline candidates.

Where necessary, External Examiners will participate with Internal Examiners in oral examinations.

Following the Examinations:

External examiners will be invited to attend Departmental meetings to discuss the examination results. They will also be invited to attend the Faculty Examination Board meetings.

External Examiner's Report:

Following the Examination, the External Examiner shall submit a brief report to the Department. Where appropriate, the External Examiner may also submit a report to the President.

The External Examiner and Examination Appeals:

External Examiners may be consulted in relation to matters arising from examination appeals.

Examiners at Postgraduate Level

Examiners at Postgraduate Level are appointed by the Faculty of Theology. Their role corresponds to that of External Examiners at Undergraduate level.

Programme External Examiners will be appointed for Masters Degree in Pastoral Studies, the Higher Diploma in Theological Studies, the MTh (Liturgy) and the MTh (Liturgical Music) programmes.

For the degrees of Licentiate and Master, it is appropriate that an External Examiner be nominated who has expertise in the area of the thesis.

For the Degree of Doctor (DD and PhD), the External Examiner must have specialist knowledge of the area of thesis. Names and professional details of the proposed examiners will be submitted by the director to the Postgraduate Board who will bring same to the Faculty Meeting.

For the Doctorate in Divinity, the External Examiner attends the public defence of the thesis.

For the PhD in Theology, the External Examiner attends the viva voce examination, along with the Supervisor of the dissertation, the Internal Reader and the Chair of the viva board.

External Examiners will submit a report on the thesis submitted for their attention.

Procedures for the Discussion, Checking and Appeal of Examination Results

The Supervisor of Examinations shall implement the following procedures:

1. Procedures for Discussion of Examination Results:

The Faculty shall arrange a specific date within ten days of notification of examination results, on which students may discuss their theology examination results with the relevant departments of the Faculty. (This arrangement to be in addition to any other arrangement which Departments may make).

2. Procedures for Checking of Examination Results:

(i) Students may formally request the Supervisor of Examinations, Theology Office, in writing, within four weeks from the date of publication of results in College, or, in exceptional circumstances, within such extended period as allowed by the President of the College, to arrange a check of their examination result.

(ii) The Supervisor of Examinations shall communicate with the relevant Head of Department or his / her nominee, who shall arrange to have the results checked as soon as possible. The formal check shall ensure that all parts of the examination (including continuous assessment) have been marked and that no errors occurred in the recording, collating or combining of marks which determined the result.

(iii) The outcome of the checking of examination results shall be communicated in writing by the Head of Department or his / her nominee, to the Supervisor of Examinations who shall, if such an error has occurred, make the necessary arrangements to have the result amended and inform the student concerned without delay.

(iv) The fee for checking an examination result is €25 per subject.

3. Procedures for Appeal of Examination Results:

3.1 Grounds for Appeal

(i) there is evidence of substantive irregularity in the conduct of the examination;

(ii) the student has grounds to indicate that the checking of his / her examination result was not properly carried out;

(iii) there are circumstances which the Examination Board was not aware of when its decision was taken.

- Note: Students who are appealing under ground 3.1(ii) above are obliged to request a recheck through the Theology Office. Any subsequent appeal will be based on the outcome of this initial recheck, and must be lodged within three weeks of the notification of the recheck.
- Note: Students who are appealing under 3.1(iii) must outline the steps taken to notify the department concerned of the circumstances relevant to their appeal, and the response to any notification. If no steps were taken in this regard, they must explain why this was the case.

3.2 Appeal Procedures

(i) A student who wishes to appeal an examination result must do so in writing, setting out the grounds for the appeal in full, and any supporting evidence, to the Supervisor of Examinations, Theology Office, within four weeks of the issuing of the examination results. There shall be a fee for an examination appeal that will be €60 per subject.

(ii) Upon receipt of a written appeal, the Supervisor of Examinations shall inform the Examinations Appeal Board and the relevant Head(s) of Department(s) that an appeal has been lodged. Where an appeal arises in an Arts Subject the Board of Appeal shall be that of NUIM.

(iii) Pending the outcome of an appeal, students should be advised as follows:

- An appeal may not be successful
- Students should avail themselves of any opportunity to re-present for examination, on the understanding that a re-sitting of an examination would not prejudice their appeal in any way
- The conferring of a degree, where relevant, may be deferred, pending the final outcome of the appeal.

3.3 Examinations Appeal Board

(i) The Examination Appeals Board shall consist of four members appointed by the Faculty of Theology. Three of these shall be members of the Faculty and one external member. The Supervisor of Examinations shall not be a member of the Board. The quorum for any meeting of the Board shall be three members. The Faculty shall appoint one of its members Chairperson of the Board.

(ii) The Faculty of Theology shall also appoint three alternate members, who will be called on in the event of the unavoidable absence of a member of the Board or his / her involvement in the appeal under consideration. The alternate members may include extern examiners from subjects other than that involved in the appeal. The President of the College may, on the request of the Chairperson of the Board, appoint additional alternate members provided that such appointments shall lapse unless ratified by the next meeting of the Faculty.

(iii) The Examinations Appeal Board shall consider the appeal and the grounds on which it is based, and may, as appropriate, consult with the internal and external examiner(s). The Board's decision shall be by majority vote, and, in the event of equality of votes, by the casting vote of the chairperson. The chairperson of the Board shall inform the President, the Faculty and the student regarding the outcome of the appeal.

(iv) The Examinations Appeal Board shall complete its business with reasonable expedition, normally within four weeks of the date of the acceptance of the appeal.

(v) The decision of the Examinations Appeal Board shall be final.
